Some Helpful Notes

- Textbook orders are processed at your local campus bookstore 2-3 weeks before classes begin. If you're renting textbooks, remember to return them to us during the finals week to avoid any charges.
- We strive to provide the most affordable options, but our local inventory changes daily. If we substitute a different format than the Used or Used Rental you requested, you will see that reflected on your final bill. If you are unsatisfied with the format you receive, we will process a refund for you.
- Any item marked as "Order in Advance" will not be charged to your account until the item is available to ship.
